CLASS PROPHECY

Carelessly I picked up a book—an old one—and poetry at that. Tennyson—oh, yes—he was poet laureate of England for Victoria, wasn't he? Idly I turned the pages—then stopped—my eyes fell on these lines:

"For I dip't into the future, far as human eye could see,"
Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonders that could be.

"Saw the heavens filled with commerce, argosies of magic sails,
Pilots of the purple twilight, dropping down with costly bales.
Heard the heavens filled with shouting and there rained a ghastly dew
From the nations' airy navies, grappling in the central blue."

Why, he even saw the hope of the hopeful—the Federation of Man. Tennyson was a wonderful man, I thought. He dip't into the future. I leaned back, closed my eyes.

Ah, Tennyson had put me into the proper mood—for suddenly—clear and crystallized—

"For I dip't into the future, far as human eye could see,"
Saw the Class of '41—Cradock High—it seemed to be—

Hazel Pearman replacing Miss Graves.
Joyce Williams replacing Miss Haverty.
Johnny Casteen—married—and general manger of Roper's Service Station.
Johnny Winn—a scout executive.
Betty Brown and Virginia Bryant, coaching the Cradock girls' basketball team to victory.
Ella Grimes—charming us from Hollywood.
Mary Leonard—modeling for cigarette ads.
Joyce Paris—looking more like Virginia Bruce than ever.
George Barlow—editor of the Cradock Daily.
J. D. Ketchum—as an automobile salesman—he tops the list.
Irene Edmondson—running the Happy Heart Escort Service.
Jimmy Moorehead—the Jimmy Garrett of the class of '41.
Ruth Ridgeway—a demure school teacher.
Doris Hines—happy with Dallas.
Adele Seybold—an airhostess, trim and neat.
Mary Pearson—writer of poetry.
Doris Knowles—world's famous woman boxer.
Ted Nettles—farming in Deep Creek.
Elbert Ellett—photographer for Portsmouth Star.
Eddie Weaver—circulation manager for Virginian-Pilot.
Juanita Austin—head of Cradock's Sewing Circle.
Dorotha Manning—running Cradock's best restaurant.
Elaine Byrd—evangelist.
Hamilton Oliver—president of Cradock National Bank.
Alice Hefferon—welfare worker in Mississippi.
Albert Steinmier—Portsmouth's hottest "Jitterbug."
Doris Casteen—an artist for the Charles Stainback Advertising Agency.
Beverly Green—modeling clothes for the designer, Lucille Burnham.
Margaret Gardner—the life of any party.
Evelyn Parker—how well she looks as a Red Cross nurse.
Marguerite Treiber—a "white collar" girl.
Elmer Sahr—coach for the Cradock boys' basketball team.
Can this be Aulton McElveen in overalls?
Margaret Batzold and Betty Via—business secretaries.
Peggy Gardner—running a gossip column.
Nora Melms—entertaining the Young Matrons' Bridge Club—class of '41—composed of Jean Welch, Sara Frances Goodwin and Geraldine Barrow.
Shirlee Davis—dancing for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.
Paul Hesketh—a second "Benny Goodman."
Bob Paris—the motorcycle demon.
James Oliver and William Kennedy—caught in the draft.
Norman Tibbetts, Billy Agricola and Charles Martin—all in the Navy Yard.
Evelyn Godfrey—pianist for National Broadcasting Company.
Florence Larsson—a Broadway success.
Larry Moore—using his famous bass for calling hogs.
Norma Ackels—understudy for Ann Sothern in a "Mazie" series.
Jimmy Taylor—a dignified business executive.
William Lovelace—inventor of Dr. Lovelace's Elixir—good for what ails you.
Everett Ripley—replacing Horace Jones as manager of the Afton Theatre.
John McKinney—now known as "Long John"—the tallest man in the world, he never did stop growing.
Here comes the Navy—a salty lot—Lucien Burnham, McDuffy Barrow, Kenneth Phillips.

That can't be me!
Donald Bolding—old and gray!
From going to Cradock High School,
He got that way!

CLASS HISTORY

IT WAS early in September, 1937—a calm, peaceful, autumn day. The good ship Cradock High School, stood at anchor at the wharf ready to begin another four-year voyage over new and untried waters to the Land of Wisdom.

As the ship stood at anchor on that eventful morning in September, the passengers began to arrive, and to me was entrusted the important task of writing the log of the voyage—the voyage that, even then, we all realized was to be the most important of our lives. We were informed that it would take four years to complete the four laps of the voyage.

We started our voyage of High School life over the Freshman Sea with Miss Elizabeth Duke as captain. The officers were: Francis Matthews, President; Everett Ripley, Vice-President; John Casteen, Secretary-Treasurer. With this crew in charge, we sailed along smoothly until June. We could hardly realize that the first year of our voyage had been completed.

We began our second year on the Sophomore Sea, and again Miss Duke was our captain. We elected Margaret Batzold, President; John Casteen, Vice-President; and Marguerite Treiber, Secretary-Treasurer. Again we had a very efficient crew, which piloted us successfully through the second year of our voyage—thus completing the first half of our journey.

We began the second half of our journey and the third year on the Junior Sea. Miss Duke, having served us well for two years, was elected again as our captain. Jimmy Taylor was elected President; John Winn, Vice-President; Margaret Batzold, Secretary; and Charles Stainback, Treasurer. We charted our course with, "He who studies, prospers," and flew the colors of Blue and White. This year we were hosts to the Seniors on the memorable night of April 26. We were complimented on the excellent selection of an orchestra, and the Junior-Senior was a great success. Then came June, and at last the long-awaited fourth and last year of our voyage.

Entering the Senior Sea, we met with many mishaps. Our captain, Miss Helen Haines, had been called to another position and we faced the problem of guiding our ship into port without a captain. We are proud that ours is the first class to work through a Planning Committee. Each Senior activity was planned by class committees with the guidance of an elected faculty member. The class elected very efficient officers to guide the various enterprises. The officers were: Jimmy Taylor, President; Charles Stainback, Vice-President; Doris Knowles, Secretary; and Margaret Batzold, Treasurer. In October we selected our rings with the usual discussion. In November the Class went to Williamsburg, Virginia, and attended the Home-Coming Celebration of William and Mary College. We also attended the football game, in which William and Mary defeated the University of Virginia. Also, in November, we initiated the freshmen and new-comers into high school life. In December the Class spent a delightful evening at City Park, roasting hot dogs and marshmallows. The many dances sponsored by the Class added to the social enjoyment of the school. After the dreaded mid-term exams, we picked the Admiral Staff, and then started the task of taking pictures for the annual.

On February 14, the annual "Odds and Ends" minstrel was presented to a very large audience, under the excellent direction of Miss Haverty, with a large cast of seniors. After much discussion, we selected our invitations in March. Then started the usual task of selecting the cast for the Class play, "One Wild Night." This was presented on April 18, and was pronounced a great success by all who attended. On March 31 the tides of time were turned back, and we became babies once more. On April 25 we were honored guests at the annual Junior-Senior Dance. In May the Class enjoyed a sight-seeing trip to the National Capital.

We relinquished all our sorrows at the Senior Burial and brought our ship into port with the usual functions—the Banquet, Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Night and Commencement.

This year the annual proved to be the finest in the history of the school.

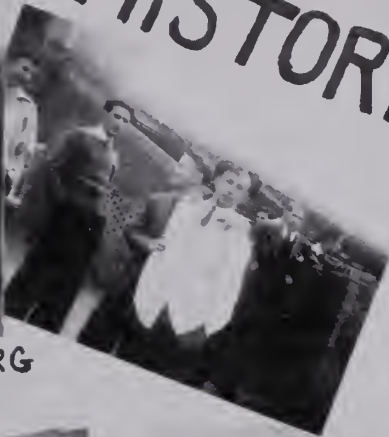

Thus our voyage is at an end, and we are now beginning another and longer voyage—the Voyage of Real Life.

We hope that we have left as much to Cradock High as she has given to us.

CLASS POEM

The time has come when we must part
From friends we know and hold so dear,
From all the old familiar things
That knit us closer year by year.

But tho its sad and we would stay,
We watch the banners now unfurled,
And bright and new with dreams of life
That whisper loud, "Yours is the world."

So here's to the night of nights for us,
To hopes that we some day may say
"Success is ours, the dreams came true,
The banners still are bright and gay."

—MARY PEARSON

CLASS SONG

LET'S BE BUDDIES

In the years we have known
Our friendships have grown
But the time's drawing nigh
To say good-bye to our school.

With the memories so dear
We leave you with a tear
And sadly we depart
With hopes in every heart.

Another milestone won
Another task well done
We leave you now with
Ambitions rising high.

The road's long and winding
But we'll find our
Farewell, Cradock High
We fondly bid you adieu.

—MARGARET BATZOLD

ATHLETICS

SEASON 1941-1942

THE Cradock High School 1940-41 athletics season opened with a defeat. The strong Newport News team, the Typhoons, representing a Class A school, administered a defeat in the first game of the series. Games with South Norfolk and Suffolk proved to be thrilling ones. The County Championship was won by the Admirals through successive victories over the Class B conference schools.

Early in December the Admiral's basketball season got under way with five veterans and a newcomer, Bill Lane. Lane was high point player with 275 points to his credit. The major defeat of the season was administered by the Admirals when they defeated Portlock to break that team's 28th straight victory and to chalk up a second County championship.

With six of last year's letter players returning for more basketball, the girls went through a victorious season. Undeclared by any team in the Class B league, the Cradock girls won the Norfolk County championship. The thriller of the season was played at Cradock with the St. Joseph's Academy, which ended in a 25-25 tie.

With most of last year's lettermen returning, the boys' and girls' baseball teams are expecting a season of victories, and with them the fourth and fifth championships.

The track team looks forward to its annual meet at William and Mary, and its victorious trip to Charlottesville to participate in the State track finals. Here's to a 1941-42 season like the past one. Good luck, Admirals!

ON GUARD

On guard for Cradock High,	Fight, fight for Cradock High,
For our school we'll do or die,	Raise our glory to the sky,
Gladly we'll meet the test	Will never, never rest
And make our school the very best.	Until our glory has reached the crest.

Three cheers for Cradock High,
As our team goes marching by,
Our banners we'll hold
And the colors they fly, maroon and gold.

Hail, hail for Cradock High
Hail, hail the Admirals as they cry,
"Victories we'll win untold
And glorify maroon and gold."

CLUB ACTIVITY

STUDENT COUNCIL

It is the work of the Student Council to deal with the problems of student welfare and to improve the general appearance of the school. With these aims in view, the Council holds discussions with faculty, students and among its own members.

It sponsored the annual Spring Festival Dance, May 16th, the proceeds to be used to carry on its projects. In March the Council was host to six hundred representatives of the S. C. A. in this District.

Meetings are held every Monday.

GLEE CLUB

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs attended the annual State Music Festival in Richmond, April 4th and 5th. They competed against schools from all over the State. The Glee Club has gone to the festival for the last three years, winning many honors there.

The Club sponsored its annual production of "Odds and Ends" Minstrel, February 14th. So successful was the performance that it was repeated in March.

LIBRARY CLUB

The sixteen assistants of the Library Club render valuable services to Miss Graves, the librarian, by checking out, receiving, and shelving books. By mending books and by sending out reminder slips and overdue slips, they check the circulation of books.

They have their meetings about once a month.

HI-Y CLUB

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The Club is new in the school and its influence has yet to be extended.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The one-act play for the State Literary Contest is the objective of the Dramatic Club. A tragedy, by the name of "Auf Wiedersehn," was presented as the 1941 entry of the Cradock Dramatic Club.

MONOGRAM CLUB

Each year, students, who have shown better-than-average ability in athletics, and have taken an active part in school athletics are rewarded by letters and stars and are eligible for membership in this club.

The club, however, does not limit itself just to awards. For the purpose of raising more money for letters, it sponsored a dance, which was held on the 10th of April.

ORCHESTRA

The school orchestra has proved a valuable addition to all school programs. Music for plays, for meetings, and for school programs was furnished by Mr. Hardin's pupils.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Members of the Photography Club have been snapping pictures of students on the campus, and inside the school. Some of these pictures are used in the annual. Developing the pictures taken by members is a major part of the Photography Club's activities.

PATROL CLUB

The reorganized Patrol Club supplies monitors for all occasions. Hall supervision between class periods, yard supervision, and traffic directions, are duties undertaken by the Patrol Club.

34. Cornelia Gregory—"It's in foul shape."

“These” Were the Days When—

The girls wore short, red jackets, corduroy skirts, and high socks.

The Frisco, with its variations, was danced to “Beat Me Daddy, 8-to-the Bar,” “Rhum Boogie,” and “Frenesi.”

The boys wore trench coats with slacks and shirts with detachable collars.

Bank Night every Thursday crowded the Afton.

Jumper dresses and bows in back of a girl's pompadour were popular.

The favorite rendezvous was the drug store practically every night.

The boys' hot socks and saddle oxfords hit you between the eyes.

The world was a-gog over the first peace-time conscription and the first third term President.

Long pearls worn with pastel sweaters were just the thing.

The he-men of Cradock High swiped their girl friend's pin, ribbons, et cetera, and proudly wore them on their sweaters.

There were not enough chairs to provide for the influx of new pupils.

Plaid, pastel skirts (short) were worn with trotter shoes and socks.

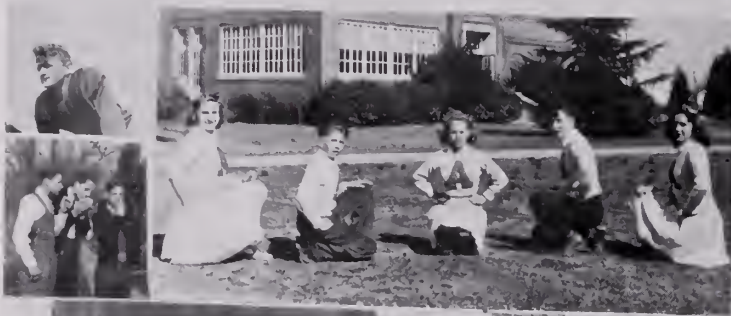

Rodman's or Pete's was the place to go for square dogs.

Cradock Gardens and New Gosport were infants-in-arms.

The boys wore baby-blue trousers with glass belts and smoked 2 for 5c cigars.

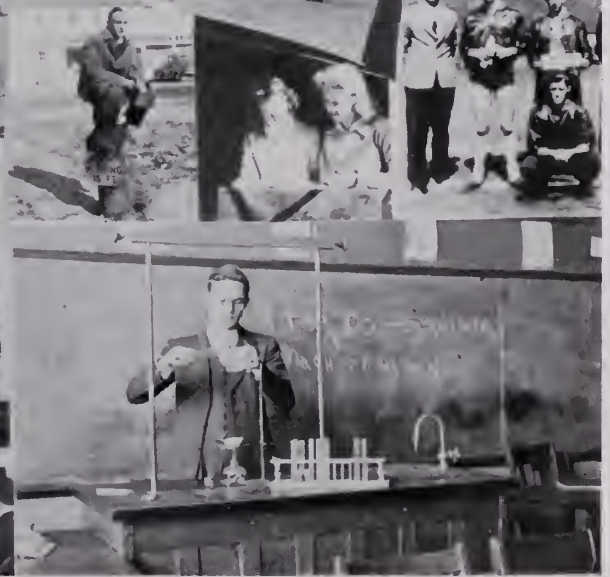

Visits to the new wing to view progress on the Cafeteria was a daily occurrence.

A person who was daring enough skipped a class to go to the drug store for a Pepsi-Cola and two straws.

June 3—	Exams.Seniors beware!
June 4—	Exams.
June 6—	Class Night. The will, gifts, farewell songs, a look into the future with our prophet.
June 8—	Baccalaureate Sermon—the thrill of wearing caps and gowns for the first time.
June 9—	Diplomas! End four years!
June 10—	Finis!
June 11—	Ho hum.

SCHOOL HONORS

The Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League conducts annual contests in public speaking, spelling, reading, debating, and dramatics. The district contest takes place at William and Mary, Norfolk Division, and the winners there compete in Charlottesville for State honors.

Cradock's entries are selected after preliminary contests in the school. The following were contestants from our school:

One-Act Play

FLORENCE LARSSON	JOE TAYLOR
ELLA GRIMES	JOHN CASTEEN
LARRY MOORE	PAUL HESKETH

Spelling

BERTRAM BATZOLD

Public Speaking

INA MAE GOLDBERG
ERNST ALBRECHT

Last year Cradock won third place in Class B track honors and also won the Norfolk County Championship.

Participants in Charlottesville who won honors were:

HAROLD TREAKLE
BILLY COOPER
JAMES REMINGTON
NORMAN TIBBETTS
JACK WILSTRUP

At the 1941 Music Festival held in Richmond, April 3rd and 4th, the Girls' Special Chorus, directed by Miss Haverty, won a rating of Excellent. The combined Glee Clubs appeared well in competition with other State organizations.

Irene Edmondson without that conventional giggle?
Donald Bolding doing the rhumba?
Miss Duke not calling her pets “trifling skallywags”?
Elbert Ellett minding his own business?
Mary Leonard knowing her Latin?
The Freshman class not acting like typical Freshmen?
Jimmy Taylor not saying “now yo’all be quiet” at Senior meetings?
Ella Grimes failing to display her dimples?
Mr. McCahill “pitching woo”?
Paul Hesketh with a crew cut?
Alice Hefferon with a Yankee accent?
James Moorehead without girls?
Phyllis Harrell catching the school bus on time for the basketball games?
Florence Larsson minus her vocabulary?
Joe Taylor, speechless?
Beverly Green without a stag line?
Coach Daughtrey unable to offer a corny joke?
Mary Pearson not powdering her nose?
Bill Lane not going to sleep in History 111 class?
The Sophomore girls not knowing all the new dance steps?
Ernst Albrecht without an argument?
Miss Hardy riding a bicycle around Cradock in shorts?
George Barlowe not reading a book?
Albert Steinmier “jitterbugging”?
Tommy Luke giving up knitting?

JOKES

Conductor (on street car) speaking to Larry Moore: "Young man, keep your head inside the window."

(La Moo) Larry Moore: "I don't have to, if I don't want to."

Conductor: "Well, all right, but if you break any of the iron structure on the bridge at the next corner, you'll have to pay for it."

Teacher: "Yes, children, an Indian wife is called a squaw. Now what are the little Indian babies called?"

Bright pupil: "I know, squawkers."

Mr. McCahill was cashing his monthly check in the bank. The teller apologized for giving him old bills, saying, "I hope you are not afraid of microbes."

"Not at all," he replied, "No microbe could live on my salary."

Girl passenger: "Don't drive so fast around the corners. It makes me nervous.."

Elmer Sahr: "If you don't want to get scared, do as I do; shut your eyes when we come to the corners."

Guest: "Are you the bridegroom, young man?"

Youth: "No sir. I was eliminated in the semi-finals."

When Jimmy Moorehead started to school this year, his mother undertook to give him some parting words of advice anent his scholastic standing.

"I do hope you'll pay attention to your grades," she said.

"Why, mother!" exclaimed Jimmy, "I'd have you know that last year my grades attracted more attention from the faculty than anyone's."

"Daddy, what is a committee?"

"A committee, my boy, is composed of a lot of people who keep minutes and waste hours."
